Greenbelt's Building Program Climaxed By Labor Day Dedication

On Sunday, September 6, at 4:00 p.m. the City of Greenbelt will dedicate its new Municipal Building. The two-story brick and block structure, completed in March, houses the City's Council chambers, administrative offices, and Police Department. The Municipal Building will be the third public service building dedicated in Greenbelt since the City embarked upon a building program in 1959.

For many years there had been a great need for a recreation building, a firehouse, and a municipal office building in Greenbelt. In June, 1959, the City acquired initial funds for the new buildings by selling a combination school and library building to the Prince George's County Board of Education for $260,000. Three months later voters approved a referendum calling for a $200,000 bond issue to provide the additional financing necessary to construct all three buildings. The fire house and recreation center were completed in the next two years. The dedication of the Municipal Building on September 6 will culminate the five-year building program.

Following the pattern set by dedication ceremonies for the first two buildings, the Municipal Building will be dedicated on a holiday weekend. The firehouse was dedicated on July 4, 1961, and the Youth Center on Labor Day, 1962. This year Greenbelt's Labor Day weekend celebration, an annual City event, will be highlighted by the dedication ceremony on Sunday afternoon.

Hays To Speak

The principal speaker at the dedication ceremony will be Brooks Hays, a former United States Congressman from Arkansas. Mr. Hays was elected to Congress in 1942 and represented his district until 1959. In the 1930's Mr. Hays was connected with the Resettlement Administration and worked with Rexford Guy Tugwell, one of the original Greenbelt planners. In a life devoted to public service, Mr. Hays has served with both Democratic and Republican administrations. In 1959, he was named a member of the Board of Directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority by President Eisenhower. He became a special assistant to President Kennedy in 1961, and is now a consultant to President Johnson while lecturing at the Eagleton Institute of Politics at Rutgers University. Mr. Hays, who is also a lay leader in the Baptist Church, is noted as a public speaker. Many Maryland municipal officials had the opportunity of hearing him address the Annual Maryland Municipal League Convention held in Easton last September.

The dedication program will begin at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday afternoon, following several recreation events scheduled for the Labor Day weekend celebration. The Greenbelt Municipal Band, directed by Howard Carle, will present a concert from 3:30 to 4:00 p.m. at the dedication site on the Municipal Building grounds. After the playing of the National Anthem and Invocation, Mayor Edgar L. Smith will welcome visitors to the dedication and introduce the Master of Ceremonies, the Reverend Eric T. Braund, former pastor of the Community Church in Greenbelt. Mr. Braund will introduce special guests and the main speaker. After the address by Mr. Hays, awards and certificates will be presented. The ceremony will close with some re-

Edgar Smith Nominated for New Charter Board Slate

They will be opposed by five charter board candidates of the Home Rule Charter Committee who favor an elected county council and county executive government.

Also expected in the competition is another slate to be named by the Prince Georges Board of County Commissioners. While the citizens

Festival Features

by Rita Fisher

One of the musical highlights of the Labor Day Festival will be the presentation of a Gilbert and Sullivan program by the N.S.A. Mixed Chorus, on Monday, Sept. 7 at 4:30 p.m. Numbers will be featured from "Tolanthe", "Ruddigore", "Trial by Jury", "H.M.S. Pinafore", "Gondoliers", "The Mikado", "The Yeoman of the Guard", "Patience", and "Pirates of Penzance".

The solos, small ensembles, and full chorus numbers which are on the program have been chosen because of their audience appeal, with a few of "everyone's favorites" balancing perhaps less-known but equally musical selections.

The group is directed by Frank Lewis, with Fred Beaudoin as piano accompanist.

Folk Festival

The Greenbelt Teen Club, in conjunction with The Greenbelt Twin Pines Savings & Loan Association, is sponsoring a Folk Festival, Saturday, September 5 at 8 p.m., as part of the Labor Day Festival.

This Folk Festival will be a singing contest composed of single or group competition. There will be no entry fee. First place prize will be $50.00; second place, $25.00. A $25.00 prize will be given for the most popular performance, judged by applause. Each performer will sing 2 numbers, with the most popular performance singing several extra numbers. Arrangements are being made to have the Folk Festival taped by WAVA radio.

All entries should be mailed to the Greenbelt Recreation Department, Greenbelt, Maryland by September 1st. If participants wish to phone in order to enter the contest, they may call between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. each weekday, 474-6878. All participants should report to the Greenbelt Youth Center before 7:30 p.m. on September 5.

Film Festival

Another feature of the Labor Day Festival will be a Film Festival over much of the three-day weekend. Local organizations will show movies or film strips related to the nature or work of their group, and will lead brief discussions. A small charge of 10 cents for adults and 5 cents for children will be made.

North End School is sponsoring films for children, including "Stone Soup", "The Red Balloon", "And Now Miguel", plus a much praised new film for adults, "The Schools Have Kept Us Free."

The Boy Scouts, League of Women Voters, American Legion, Fair Housing, Arts & Crafts Guild, N.A.S.A., Credit Union, 4-H Clubs, Lions Club, Methodist Church, Library Association, and Community Church will all be showing films. A complete schedule, plus information about the films, will be given in the Festival Issue of the Greenbelt News Review.

Any other Greenbelt organizations wishing to participate in the Film portion of the Festival should contact Jim Cassels at 474-6900.

OPENING OF CAPITAL BELTWAY PUTS GREENBELT IN MAINSTREAM

by Al Skolnik

The last vestiges of Greenbelt isolation disappeared last Monday when Maryland Governor J. Millard Tawes formally opened the Maryland section of the Capital Beltway just east of the New Hampshire ave. intersection. The Maryland section is 43 miles in length; the entire Beltway forms a 66-mile loop around the Nation's capital.

Hearings Tomorrow On 8 Zoning Petitions

Eight petitions to rezone land lying within two miles of the border of Area 13 and thus directly affecting the future zoning in or near the city of Greenbelt will be the subject of a public hearing tomorrow at 10 a.m. The hearings will be held by the County Council in the Court House of Upper Marlboro. The following six petitions requested a change in classification from R-R (rural residential; private homes) to R-18 (rooming or boarding houses, or apartments, 6 stories high).

No. A-4920 of Milfan Co. Inc., owner, for reclassification of 4.2 acres located on the west side of Cipriano Road.

No. A-5599 of Dickerson and Carrie Hoover, owners, for reclassification of 17.2 acres located at the intersection of Glenn Dale and Telegraph Roads, fronting 900 feet on Glenn Dale Road.

No. A-5600 of Alfred H. Smith, Thomas Ricker and Meyer Shapiro, owners, for reclassification of 15 acres fronting on the south side of Glenn Dale Road.

No. A-5601 of Alfred H. Smith, Thomas Ricker, and Meyer Shapiro, owners, for reclassification of 2.6 acres fronting 580 feet on the east side of Telegraph Road about 780 feet south of Glenn Dale Road.

No. A-5603 of Dickerson and Carrie Hoover, owners, for the reclassification of 26 acres fronting 314 feet on the south side of Glenn Dale Road about 900 feet east of Telegraph Road.

A-5605 of Theodora Hoover, Charles Kienast, and Anna Kienast, owners, for reclassification of 21.6 acres on the north side of Glenn Dale Road, the east side of Telegraph Road, and the west side of Old County Road.

The following petition, also to be heard Friday, requests a change in classification from R-R (rural residential; private homes) to R-H (high rise apartments, unlimited height, up to 1,400 people per building.)

No. 5602 of Alfred H. Smith, Thomas Ricker and Meyer Shapiro, owners, for reclassification of 2.8 acres fronting 670 feet on the east side of Telegraph Road about 100 feet south of Glenn Dale Road.

The 12th petition, which follows, requests a change in classification from R-R (rural residential, private homes) to I-2 (heavy industrial, all heavy industrial uses):

A-5604 of Alfred H. Smith, Thomas Ricker, Meyer Shapiro, and Elroy Gasch, owners and contract purchasers, for reclassification of 64.6 acres on the north side of Old Glenn Dale Road.

Yesterday, hearings on the following four petitions were postponed. These also requested a change from RR to R18

No. A-4830 of Morris Cafritz and Jacob Shapiro, owners, for reclassification of 23.75 acres located on the south side of Glenn Dale Road about 900 feet west of Cipriano Road.

No. A-4831 of Morris Cafritz and Jacob Shapiro, owners, for reclassification of 6.4 acres located at the southwest corner of Glenn Dale Road and Cipriano Road.

No. A-4832 of Morris Cafritz and Jacob Shapiro, owners, for reclassification of 25.7 acres located at the southeast corner of Glenn Dale Road and Cipriano Road.

No. A-4835 of Raymond and Mildred Mangold, owners, for reclassification of 5.25 acres located on the west side of Cipriano Road about 1400 feet south of Glenn Dale Road. Eight petitions will be heard Friday, Aug. 21, at 10 a.m. The following six, like those above, also request a change from R-R to R-18.

The entire Maryland section of the freeway contains six 12-foot travel lanes, three in each direction, separated by a wide median strip. There will be a total of 23 interchanges on the Maryland section, providing connections with principal radials leading in and out of Washington.

The new Beltway will permit Greenbelt residents to cut sharply the time consumed in traveling to Virginia or to suburban communities in Montgomery County. The Beltway provides the first truly good connection between the two suburban Maryland counties. Only the opening of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway in October 1954 which provided rapid transit to downtown Washington can match in importance the effect on Greenbelt's isolated physical position.

The Beltway is expected to be a major factor in reshaping the social, residential, and economic pattern of the Maryland countryside. Already new housing developments, industrial parks, and shopping centers are springing up, particularly in Prince Georges County. State officials say real estate values have risen by "staggering" amounts since the Beltway came alive.

The Washington Post noted that "one can expect more Government installations to seek sites not far from the new Circumferential. The number and variety already is staggering, ranging from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight Center at Greenbelt to the General Services Administration's warehouse in Springfield."

The Post also speculated that new shopping centers in the future will choose their sites with the Beltway in mind. In fact, it noted that few of the suburban shopping centers today are located more than 10 minutes from the Beltway.

Industrially, the Post reporter felt that the Capital Beltway is still something of a question, since there is little production activity in the area. But it is expected that electronics and research and development plants are likely to gravitate to the fringes of the Beltway.

For the first three months, while further improvements are made in the Beltway, the speed limit will be reduced to 45 miles an hour from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. At all other times 60. The regular speed limit will eventually be 65 miles per hour. The Beltway has no stop signs, traffic lights, or billboards.

The exit at Greenbelt on the Baltimore-Washington Parkway is number 29. The exit at Kenilworth Ave. is number 28.

Our Firemen Win Award

by Vic Fisher

On Sunday, August 16, at the annual picnic sponsored by the Maryland State Fire Chief's Association, the Greenbelt Volunteer Fire Dept. & Rescue Squad was selected as the 3rd Best Appearing Company outside of Baltimore County.

This was a significant award for our men because it demonstrated the fact that a comparatively small company was able to "shine" over many larger companies.

Our neighboring Laurel Fire Dept. won the award for Best Appearing Company — Overall. This was the highest award made to any company. This is also the 3rd year in a row that Laurel was able to win the award. Therefore, they get to keep the Trophy. It is sincerely hoped that Gunther Brewing Co. will be kind enough to donate another trophy to be used in future years.

HOW GENUINE?

To the Editor:

The meeting called in Greenbelt last Friday by the "Citizens' Charter Convention" was a sorry sight indeed. After several serious organizations - the Prince Georges Home Rule Charter Committee, "Project Marlboro", the League of Women Voters and others - have spent years studying the problem and gradually enlisting public support, a brand new group has come and tries to disqualify them because it, alone, has never before been involved with it!

The meeting gave the impression of being carefully prearranged - for a purpose. A member of the audience, who as a "newcomer" unacquainted with the problem reiterated the statements of the organization's spokesman, turned out to be a member of the nominating committee, and Mayor pro tem of Bowie too. Harold Rogers, one of the nominees, noted that he was not convinced that a charter is the best form of government and meeting chairman, Jim Colby stated that, after all, we have a charter "of sorts" in the county.

In short, the new organization seems to be as genuine as a three-dollar bill. I hope it enjoys the same circulation.

Berwyn Hts. Citizens To Join Jaeger Appeal

(from the Evening Star)

ANNAPOLIS, Aug. 18—Thirteen Berwyn Heights (Md.) homeowners are attempting to intervene in the Greenbelt apartment zoning appeal before the Court of Appeals.

In a petition to file a brief as amicus curiae (friend of the court), they contend that the town council voted publicly to carry on the appeal and then voted privately to withdraw from it.

At issue is the rezoning for apartments of more than 70 acres adjacent to the Greenbelt Regional Park. Strongly opposed by citizens from Greenbelt and Berwyn Heights, the proposal was denied by the Prince Georges County Commissioners. The property owner, Carl F. Jaeger of Berwyn Heights, appealed to Circuit Court and Judge William B. Bowie overruled the county commissioners.

Berwyn Heights and Greenbelt participated in the circuit court appeal. After Judge Bowie's action, they noted appeals to Maryland's high court here. The petitioners state that the Berwyn Heights town commissioners, after a public hearing March 19, voted to join the appeal. Then, in a closed meeting May 21, they voted 3-1 to withdraw.

If the Court of Appeals denies the petition for amicus curiae, the citizens say they will ask to join Greenbelt and William J. Avrutis in the appeal.

Flag Poles for Municipal Building
On Tuesday the General Crew began digging 3 holes for the placement of flagpoles alongside the Municipal Building. Each 30 foot aluminum pole will be placed in a 36 inch hole supported in concrete. The flagpoles will be 8 feet apart, in line with the front of the Municipal Building. Flags will be raised on the new poles during the dedication ceremony of the new Municipal Building, to be held September 6, 1964.

The line-marking crew has been busy removing rust spots and old paint from the guard rails on both sides of Crescent Road above the underpasses at Hillside, Gardenway, and Westway. The 8 guard rails will soon be given a prime coat and a new outside coat of aluminum paint.

F.B.I. Enforcement Conference

On August 14, 1964 Police Chief William Lane and Lt. Marshall Zoellner attended a special Law Enforcement Conference held by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Baltimore. The new Civil Rights act recently passed by Congress was discussed at the conference, and provisions of the Fugitive Felon Act were reviewed. Many federal, state and local law enforcement officers from Maryland and Delaware attended the conference.

How to Discourage Burglars and Prowlers

Chief William Lane recommends that all residents who are leaving on vacation notify the Department of the dates they will be away from home so that their house may be checked. The following is a recommended check list of precautionary measures to be taken before leaving home for an evening, or an extended period of time. HAVE YOU

1. Cancelled all daily deliveries?
2. Left a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer, so that your lights turn on at dusk, turn off again at bedtime to create a "lived-in" look while you're away?
3. Discontinued the newspaper (or arranged to have it forwarded)?
4. Notified your Police Department and a neighbor as to date of your departure and return?
5. Left shades or blinds in normal position - not completely closed?
6. Closed and locked all windows and doors—including the garage?
7. Arranged to have your lawn cut?
8. Arranged with a neighbor or post office to hold all mail?
9. Used pin-tumbler cylinder locks (with a dead lock mechanism) on all exterior doors?
10. Rented a safety deposit box for storage of all valuables?

Help your Police Department combat burglaries by following this guide when leaving your home. Printed copies of this check list may be obtained from the Police Department.

Arty Facts

by Frank Lewis

The Arts Guild has come up with a real attraction for their Labor Day Festival booth by enabling visitors to have their portraits sketched "on the spot" by a skilled artist. Mr. Keith Pendleton will be on the scene with pencil, charcoal, and pastels, and the sitter will be offered a certain amount of choice as to the type of portrait desired. Mr. Pendleton is able to turn out more "finished" sketches than the average side-walk artist attempts, and five-to-fifteen minute drawings will be featured rather than "lightning sketches". While the quality will be highly professional, the cost will be much more nominal than could be obtained at resorts, for example, and visitors can come away with a lasting and worthwhile memento of the Festival.

The oil picture painted by Marie Picard especially for the Guild, which will be raffled off on Labor Day, is now on display at Twin Pines. It is a very life-like New Hampshire winter scene, which the winner should be very proud to own. Tickets are presently available from Guild members, and may also be obtained at their booth during the Festival.

Indicative of interest in the Art Festival to be held in the Municipal Building is a phone call received from one prospective exhibitor, a professional of recognized standing, who wishes to enter 20 paintings.

Guild members are reminded of their meeting at Twin Pines, this Friday, Aug. 21, at 8 p.m. Final details of Festival arrangements will be discussed.

Larry Kling, age 21, 1A Ridge, was one of four apprentice chefs who recently marked the completion of the first phase of their training in the ageless art of culinary creation by presenting a dinner at the Shoreham that was a gourmet's delight. And they did the whole thing themselves from soup to nuts. Larry has been training in the Shoreham kitchens since last October under a program devised by the hotel's Dominique D'Ermo, food and beverage director, and made possible by a Federal grant under the Manpower Development Training Act. It will take another two years for Larry to complete the course.

A garden party in honor of former Greenbelters, Frank and Evelyn Nunnery, now residing in Lanark, Florida, was held at the home of former Greenbelters Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Greene in Sunrise Beach, Maryland. (The Greens have returned from 3 years in Germany.) Greenbelters attending the happy reunion were the J. Richard Hoffman family, Mr. and Mrs. George Eshbaugh, and the Laurence Weisel family. If anyone would like to get in touch with the Nunnerys who will be here a month, please call Mrs. Hoffman or Mrs. Weisel.

Ronald and Ginger Shepler had no trouble in displaying their mastery at last Friday's duplicate bridge session when they won a 5-point first-place victory over their nearest rivals, Pauline and Ted

Golden Agers

Our August 12th meeting saw 49 members present; if 11 more attend the seating capacity will be filled. With the resumption of cooler weather and the reinstitution of refreshments, temporarily discontinued during the summer, attendance will no doubt increase.

Rev. Buker and wife spent two weeks in the Pocono mountains. Mrs. Stewart of 8-G Southway flew to Toronto, Canada to visit her sister whom she had not seen for several years. The Leo Mullin family spent several days in Pennsylvania at the old homesite visiting relatives.

Eight special prizes donated by one of our members were sold at auction with the result that twelve dollars was added to the treasury.

George Sheaffer and wife, formerly of Greenbelt, now of Forrestville, Maryland (both employees of the U. S. Treasury Department) presented us with six special prizes for auction which increased our treasury by nine dollars. Thanks. At this meeting four other special prizes were presented by members Kaelin, Tallman, Flynn, and Cooper.

Our Rod and Reel banquet will be held on August 25 at the Rod and Reel Club on the Bay. Two 45 seat capacity buses will be at the Center at 10:45 a.m. on that date to transport us there. Dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m. in the large dining room after which all who desire may take a boat trip. Members who would like to attend but have not signified their intention as yet should call GR. 4-6353 and state their dinner choice of chicken, crabcakes, or fish. This will be one of the highlights of our Club's activities; if you miss it you will miss a treat.

We noticed another automobile accident (the third we've personally witnessed) on Greenbelt Road at the entrance to Klein's this past Monday. Fortunately it only resulted in property damages. The "powers that be" must be waiting for something a bit more before they install traffic controls there and at the intersection of Edmonston and Greenbelt Roads. What are taxes for ???

by Richard Stevenson
Director of Recreation

Ponytail League

The Ponytail Softball League ended with a flare of excitement as the Chargers and the Broncos faced each other in the last showdown of the season. The Chargers won the play-offs by a score of 6 to 5 and ended the season in first place. The All-Star - Coaches game will be played over the Labor-Day weekend along with the Watermelon Festival for the girls.

Powderpuff League

The Powderpuff League ended in a victory of 17-7 over the Carole Highlands 15-and-under team. The Powderpuff team, composed of 15-and-under girls, played in an 18-and-under softball league and consequently lost their games but gained in ability and playing experience. The girls showed their ability when they played girls of their own age and came up with a whopping victory. The softball program will be continued next summer and thanks are due to the parents who cheered so hard this year.

The winner of the tournament will represent the Washington metropolitan area in the national championships held in Springfield, Ohio over the Labor Day week-end. Only a few choice seats are available, so plan to arrive early for an enjoyable evening.

Basketball League

The Boys' Basketball League ended its season with the following standings:

	W	L
Terps	3	3
Bonnies	3	3
Tar Heels	3	3
Dukes	1	5
